Trinity Term at LMH

In the past year there has been a seismic shift in public and political discourse.

Openness, multiculturalism and liberal attitudes have lost ground to closing borders, cultural protectionism and the right. This has been exposed by populism, Brexit, elections in America and those looming in Europe. In the Times Higher Education (2-8 March 2017), the editorial trumpeted 'Universities set to be hotspots in culture wars.'

These are 'interesting times': O Lord! What next?!

Services on Sundays start at 5.30pm
