Introduction

LMH is committed to sustainable travel and encourages the use of energy efficient public and shared transport, bicycles and walking for visitors travelling to the College. By discouraging unnecessary travel and the use of private motor transport, we aim to reduce carbon emissions in line with our Environmental Sustainability Policy and reduce traffic and congestion in the Oxford area.

The College is located to the North of the city centre, adjacent to the University Parks.

Directions to Lady Margaret Hall by Car

From whichever direction you are coming, it is best to reach LMH from the northern end of the Oxford Ring Road: the city centre is impossible to navigate unless you already know exactly where you are going.

From London (M40 heading North):
1. Leave the M40 at Junction 8 (signposted Oxford, Cheltenham): the road merges onto the A40.
2. After about 5 miles you come to Headington Roundabout with a McDonald’s on the left. Take the 3rd exit onto the A40, signposted ‘Ring Road Cheltenham A40 The Midlands (A34)’.
3. Continue for 3 miles until you reach the Cutteslowe Roundabout. Take the 1st exit onto the A4165, signposted ‘Summertown, City Centre’: this is the Banbury Road.
4. Continue south for 1.7 miles along the Banbury Road, through Summertown shopping area. Turn left at the Cotswold Lodge Hotel (immediately after Park Town) into Norham Road.
5. Take the 2nd right into Fyfield Road, the last turning off Norham Road. You can park here and the entrance into LMH is at 1 Fyfield Road (temporary Porters’ Lodge).

From the Midlands (M40 heading South):
1. Leave the M40 at Junction 9 signposted Oxford, taking the A34 South.
2. After about 5 miles you will see the exit to Oxford A44, signposted ‘Ring Road, Oxford, London, Cheltenham (A40)’; this is the Pear Tree Roundabout, underneath the A34, from which you take the A44 2nd exit.
3. After just 0.4 miles on the A44, at the Wolvercote Roundabout take the 2nd exit signposted ‘Ring Road London A40’ and after another 0.4 miles you meet the Cutteslowe Roundabout. Take the 3rd exit onto the A4165 signposted ‘Summertown, City Centre’: this is the Banbury Road.
4. Follow steps 4. and 5. as above.

From the South (A43 heading North):
1. Ignore the (A4144) and A420 exits to Oxford; carry on until the exit to Oxford A44 (this is the Pear Tree Roundabout: take the 3rd exit off the roundabout underneath the A43).
2. After 0.4 miles on the A44, at the Wolvercote roundabout take the 2nd exit signposted ‘Ring Road London A40’ and after another 0.4 miles you meet the Cutteslowe Roundabout. Take the 3rd exit onto the A4165 signposted ‘Summertown, City Centre’: this is the Banbury Road.
3. Follow steps 4. and 5. as above.

From the West (A40 heading East):
1. This road brings you directly to the Wolvercote Roundabout: take the 3rd exit signposted ‘Ring Road London A40’, carrying on straight ahead, and after 0.4 miles you meet the Cutteslowe Roundabout. Take the 3rd exit onto the A4165 signposted ‘Summertown, City Centre’: this is the Banbury Road.
2. Follow steps 4. and 5. as above.
