

Henrietta Jex-Blake Graduate Scholarships for 2017-18

Applications are invited for the Henrietta Jex-Blake Graduate Scholarships.

Details of the award

Up to two scholarships, each worth £4,000, will be awarded. These scholarships carry with them an entitlement to College accommodation (which would be charged at the usual rate), and limited High Table dining rights: two High Table meals per term without charge, at guest nights only. The Henrietta Jex-Blake Scholarships are tenable for one year. The number of awards made may vary from year to year.

Eligibility

These scholarships are for members of LMH who will have taken an undergraduate or graduate degree at LMH by the summer of 2017 and who intend to register for a further degree at the College beginning in October 2017.

Selection Criteria

The Henrietta Jex-Blake Scholarships will be awarded on the basis of academic merit. Financial need will be taken into account where there are several strong applications. The award will be conditional on the candidate being accepted for their proposed course by the University. A proxime will also be named.

How to apply:

- Make your application to the University in the normal way with LMH as your preferred College
- Discuss your plans with your Personal Tutor or Graduate Advisor and request that he or she write in support of your application to the Tutor for Graduates c/o the Student Records Officer (student.records@lmh.ox.ac.uk)
- Write to the Tutor for Graduates, c/o the Student Records Officer, with a full description of your proposed course of study or research proposal. Please include the name of one other academic referee who may be approached by the Scholarship Committee.

The deadline for receipt of applications and references is noon on Friday 3 March 2017.

Please note it is not necessary to have funding assured to make this application.
