Introducing the preacher:

We are especially pleased to welcome the Revd Canon Dr. Rosemarie Mallett. Rosemarie is the Vicar of St. John’s Church, Angell Town in Brixton London, and also the Anglican Diocese of Southwark’s Director of Social Justice and Public Policy.

She is Chair of Governors for the local parish school, an Equalities Commissioner for the borough of Lambeth in London, and also Chair of the Big Local North Brixton, a Local Trust sponsored community hub that connects local groups working for the empowerment and enhancement of the local area. Rosemarie is deeply interested in issues of Faith in Public Life.

Next Sunday we welcome the Revd Dylan Parry Jones, curate Dyffryn Clwyd Mission Area around Ruthin in North East Wales. He formerly worked at the Anglican Communion’s Continuing Indaba conflict transformation and reconciliation ministry and is completing a PhD in a queer(ed) theology of reconciliation at Cardiff university.

Fr Andrew is thinking of starting Compline on a Tuesday evening in Chapel at 9pm. Just testing out to see if anyone is interested in attending this simple and rather beautiful end to the day.
