

The Chapel at LMH is an open and inclusive community and everyone, and 'everyone' really does means everyone, is welcome.

The Chaplain, Andrew, is here for all members of college, staff and student alike. He is also Head of Welfare and is happy to meet or assist any member of College and can direct you to sources of help and guidance if needed.

He can be contacted on:

Email: chaplain@lmh.ox.ac.uk.

His room is on the second floor of Deneke—62.

Our Director of Chapel Music is Paul Burke.

If you would like to sing in the choir or to talk about Chapel music he can be contacted on:

Email: paul.burke@lmh.ox.ac.uk

Term Card

Hilary 2022

Inclusive, welcoming and open to all. Our Chapel is open every day to every member of our community. You can light a candle, say a prayer or take a moment of silence away from the business of the day. All are truly welcome.

Chapel Services

All members of College - Fellows, undergraduates, graduates and members of staff- are welcome to attend services in Chapel, as are members of the public.

Friday in full term. 6.00pm Choral Evensong

The service is followed by a glass of wine before the Friday formal. It is a perfect way to start your evening, wonderful music, good preaching and company.

Weekly Services in Chapel:

Holy Communion 6pm Wednesday

A short mid-week celebration of the Lord's Supper for staff and students alike.

Meditation 9.00pm Wednesday —an experience of shared silence and thoughtfulness suitable for all.

Preachers for Hilary Term 2022

Friday 21st Jan

The Chaplain—Welcome back

Friday 28th Jan

The Revd Canon Alan Gyle. Alan is the Vicar of St Paul's, Knightsbridge, and a Scotsman by birth. He has degrees in Music and Theology and is an organisational coach and consultant.

Friday 4th Feb

Patrick Watt. CEO of Christian Aid.

Patrick is interim CEO of Christian Aid, one of the largest relief charities working both here and overseas. His role in Christian Aid has been to seek to influence Government policy on issues of economic, environmental and social justice.

Friday 11th Feb

Mother Esther Brazil. Esther is the curate of St Mary Mags here in Oxford. She was a Choral Scholar at Queens and professional singer before ordination, specialising in the baroque repertoire.

Friday 18th Feb

The Revd Canon James Woodward. James is the Principal of Sarum College in Salisbury and a lecturer in Theology at Winchester University. A former hospital chaplain he has written extensively on health and healing and the challenges of ageing well.

Friday 25th Feb

The Revd Steve Chalke. Steve is a Baptist minister and Founder of the Oasis Trust, which runs 43 schools here in England. He is a vocal advocate for LGBTI rights in the Church and a regular contributor to debate on education.

Friday 4th March

The Revd Ellen Clarke- King. Ellen is the first woman Dean of Kings College London. She has degrees in History and Christian Spirituality and specialised in Practical Theology and Feminist Spirituality for her PhD with a thesis on Feminist Theology interrogated by the voices of white working class women.

Friday 11th March

The Revd Tricia Hillas. Tricia is Chaplain to the Speaker of the House of Commons. She was born in Malaysia and trained as a social worker, before ordination in 2002. She completed a MSc in conflict resolution and mediation in the 2010s. A useful preparation for her current role, perhaps.