THE TYPE OF PERSONAL INFORMATION WE COLLECT:

We currently collect and process the following information:

- Personal identifiers, contacts and characteristics (for example, full name and contact details)
- When you book a meeting through our booking page, we collect your name, email address and any information you write in the notes box.
- If you have contact with one of the Wellbeing Team (either face-to-face, telephone or email contact), we record summary notes on a secure database. Wellbeing concerns raised by other members of staff are also logged in the database.

HOW WE GET THE PERSONAL INFORMATION AND WHY WE HAVE IT:

Most of the personal information we process is provided to us directly by you for the following reason:

- To enable us to provide wellbeing support and advice to you.

We access information such as your telephone number, address, date of birth, emergency contact details, and disability information that you have shared with the College through e-Vision on a strictly need to know basis.

WE USE THE INFORMATION THAT YOU HAVE GIVEN US IN ORDER TO:

- Book appointments
- Send you information related to wellbeing and relevant services.
- Ensure that we provide high quality care and ongoing support as appropriate.
- Investigate concerns or formal complaints.

All information that we have about a student is held in confidence. This means that we will not normally share your personal information with anyone else. However, sometimes we have a legal duty to provide information about people; e.g. when the information concerns risk of harm to the student, or risk of harm to another adult or a child; when a court order instructs us to do so. Records may also be shared without a student's consent in exceptional situations, such as to safeguard adults or children.

We will not share your personal information with third parties for marketing purposes.

Under the General Data Protection Regulation (GDPR), the lawful basis we rely on for processing personal information is as part of a contractual obligation: for the performance of our contract with you.

HOW WE STORE YOUR PERSONAL INFORMATION:

Your information is securely stored on an encrypted information storage platform (CPOMS). We keep personal data (contact information, meeting notes) for a period of 6 years after the end of the student relationship. We will then dispose of your information by deleting your student record on CPOMS.

Information collected through Microsoft Bookings when you book an appointment will be kept for 6 months, after which it will be automatically deleted.

YOUR DATA PROTECTION RIGHTS:

Under data protection law, you have rights including:

Your right of access - You have the right to ask us for copies of your personal information.

Your right to rectification - You have the right to ask us to rectify personal information you think is inaccurate. You also have the right to ask us to complete information you think is incomplete.

Your right to object to processing - You have the right to object to the processing of your personal information in certain circumstances.

Your right to data portability - You have the right to ask that we transfer the personal information you gave us to another organisation, or to you, in certain circumstances.
