Week 4 Thursday 12 February, 5:30-6:30 p.m. – Mary O'Brien Room

Discernment Session

What are your gifts and how could you use them best to benefit the common good, society and develop your own sense of purpose in life? As a Christian, it can be challenging to reconcile one's ethics and integrity with what society may value and consider to be a successful life (versus a 'good' life). In this session co-organised with the University Church of St Mary's, we explore these questions and enter the process of discerning what our vocation(s) may be.

Week 6 Thursday 26 February, 6:30 p.m. to 8 p.m.

Venue to be confirmed after registration. Supper provided.

Front page: the Chapel West door and original entrance. This door was 'chalked' with '20+C+M+B+26' this Epiphany with prayer for God's blessing. The letters, joined with crosses, stand for Christus mansionem benedicat ('May Christ bless this house') and ordinarily refer to the three kings, Caspar, Melchior and Balthasar, bringing gifts of gold, frankincense and myrrh to Jesus.
